

Newsletter 4.10

Camels, sheiks, new friends and an involuntary quality assessment test – FLACHGLAS Wernberg at the trade fair in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

We were greeted in Riyadh by a small temperature shock – still 32° centigrade in the middle of the night! The shock we encountered the following Sunday morning was somewhat bigger: a large wooden crate containing our valuable panes of glass lay broken on the floor of the exhibition hall!

more...

FLACHGLAS Wernberg at the EuroShop 2011 trade show. From 26.02.2011 to 02.03.2011

At the joint stand we are sharing with Flachglas MarkenKreis, we will be presenting creative ideas for glass and uses of glass for interior architectural design purposes.

Drop in and see us: Hall 10, stand C 36.

» More information

Marco Polo once stood for adventure and discoveries. From now on, the name stands for one of the most striking façades in the world.

In 1254, a fascinating explorer, adventurer and merchant was born. In 2010, an equally impressive structure bearing the same name – the Marco Polo Tower. Reaching up 55 breathtakingly beautiful meters high. There are 16 storeys demonstrating the perfect interplay between solid concrete and high-quality, transparent glass.

more...

The year is drawing to a close. To mark the end of the year...

...we send you the Season's Greetings, our best wishes for some rest and relaxation over the New Year break and plenty more fresh ideas for 2011.

The first train with windows people like looking at - and not just looking out of.

Mainly out of sheer admiration. Take the way our innovative, complete window systems withstand the enormous strain and pressure a high-speed train is exposed to every single day, for example. Not only the train but its windows, in particular.

more...

At long last: The first edition of Fakt appeared in November.

Fakt, the new company magazine – produced by our staff, for our staff.

